MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

1. This memorandum recommends action.
 2. I have no substantive criticism.
- P. 2, first sentence: Recommend putting the word "some" before the word "magazine" in the second line so that it reads "in some magazine articles."
- P. 2, last sentence: Place the word "Soviet" before "satellite" so that it reads "and its Soviet satellites."
- P. 3, first sentence, second paragraph: Change "this" to "our" so it reads "in answer to this one may answer that if our."
- P. 3, last sentence: Substitute for "nightmare" the word "possibility."
- P. 4, first sentence, second line: "of us" is superfluous.
- P. 4, third line from the bottom: "free world" should be capitalized.
- P. 5, the first sentence of Paragraph 2 is too long and too confused in speaking of "its weapon of attack for defense." Recommend rewording to more clearly express the meaning intended.
- P. 7, second line, first sentence: Place the article "the" before "Middle" so it reads "and the Middle Eastern crisis."
- Pp. 14 and 15: You speak of "Eastern Austria." Is this a correct expression? (Western Austria--the Russians occupied the area from the Enns River to beyond St. Polten, which is certainly not "Eastern Austria.")
